PRINCIPAL FEASTS OF THE YEAR

Although not everyone has the opportunity to assist at Holy Mass every day, I thought it might be helpful to list out (very roughly) some of the principal Masses of the year, which might merit a special effort to attend. This is the result of taking a look at the table of precedence in the Roman Breviary, as well as just going through the Ordo for 2023-2024. The list is certainly not exhaustive; to it, we might add: feasts of saints to whom one has special devotion, or who serve as baptismal or confirmation patrons. Attending Mass on the anniversaries of important events – weddings, deaths of loved ones, Sacraments for immediate family – is also a very pious practice. I would very much encourage reviewing this list carefully, and entering pertinent feasts into whatever calendar system you use. This could be a very concrete step towards the practice of assisting at Holy Mass on weekdays at least a few days out of every month!

Note that I do not list out Sundays or Holy Days of Obligation here. The days here are listed in rough chronological order, not in any order of relative importance.
